

THE GOSPEL OF

LUKE

THE IDENTITY
OF THE KING

Sunday | January 17, 2016

THE LIBERATOR OF THE OPPRESSED

Second Sunday after Epiphany

"The Son of David brings not only a future rule but also present release from sin and a reversal of the effects of Satan's presence in the world. In short, this is the beginning of the fulfillment of God's promise, and Jesus is the source of that fulfillment."

Darrell L. Bock

God gathers us all and calls us by his grace.

Prelude

"All My Hope on God is Founded"— Jeff Hummel
Michael Burkhardt

Welcome and Announcements

Preparation

Leader: Let's prepare our hearts to worship the living God, for "The LORD is in his holy temple; let all the earth be silent before him" (Habakkuk 2:20).

People: Amen.

A period of silence is kept.

† Call to Worship

From Psalm 146

Leader: Praise the Lord. Praise the Lord, my soul. I will praise the Lord all my life; I will sing praise to my God as long as I live.

People: He upholds the cause of the oppressed and gives food to the hungry. The Lord sets prisoners free, he gives sight to the blind.

Leader: The Lord lifts up those who are bowed down, the Lord loves the righteous. The Lord watches over the foreigner and sustains the fatherless and the widow. The Lord reigns forever.

All: Praise the Lord. Praise the Lord, my soul. I will praise the Lord all my life; we will sing praise to our God as long as we live.

CONFESSING

God invites us to be honest with him about ourselves.

Prayer of Confession

Leader: Lord Jesus, you have come to set the captives free and give sight to the blind both physically and spiritually, yet we so often don't see those needs in others or in ourselves.

People: Forgive us, Lord.

Leader: Heavenly Father, you generously give your grace to all but we don't accept it or we want to keep it for ourselves.

People: Forgive us, Lord.

Leader: Holy Spirit, your grace has set us free but we constantly return to the captivity of our sins.

People: Forgive us, Lord.

Leader: Lord God, we confess these things before you together and we ask now that you would hear our individual silent confession.

Silent Confession

"My Soul Finds Rest" – Sanctuary Choir
(Keyes, Townend)

My soul finds rest in God alone, my rock and my salvation.
A fortress strong against my foes, and I will not be shaken.
Though lips may bless and hearts may curse and lies like arrows pierce me,
I'll fix my heart on righteousness; I'll look to Him who hears me.

Find rest, my soul, in God alone, amid the world's temptations;
When evil seeks to take a hold, I'll cling to my salvation.
Though riches come and riches go, don't set your heart upon them.
The fields of hope in which I sow are harvested in heaven.

O praise Him, hallelujah, my delight and my reward,
Everlasting, never failing, my Redeemer, my God.

I set my gaze on God alone and trust in Him completely.
With ev'ry day pour out my soul and He will prove His mercy.
Though life is but a fleeting breath, a sigh too brief to measure,
My King has crushed the curse of death, and I am His forever.

O praise Him, hallelujah, my delight and my reward,
Everlasting, never failing, my Redeemer, my God.

O praise Him, hallelujah, hallelujah! Praise Him!
Hallelujah! O praise Him! Hallelujah!

Scripture Reading

Luke 4:14-30

<sup>14</sup> Jesus returned to Galilee in the power of the Spirit, and news about him spread through the whole countryside. <sup>15</sup> He was teaching in their synagogues, and everyone praised him.

<sup>16</sup> He went to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, and on the Sabbath day he went into the synagogue, as was his custom. He stood up to read, <sup>17</sup> and the scroll of the prophet Isaiah was handed to him. Unrolling it, he found the place where it is written:

<sup>18</sup> "The Spirit of the Lord is on me,
because he has anointed me
to proclaim good news to the poor.

He has sent me to proclaim freedom for the prisoners and recovery of sight for the blind,

to set the oppressed free,

<sup>20</sup> Then he rolled up the scroll, gave it back to the attendant and sat down. The eyes of everyone in the synagogue were fastened on him. <sup>21</sup> He began by saying to them, "Today this scripture is fulfilled in your hearing."<sup>22</sup> All spoke well of him and were amazed at the gracious words that came from his lips. "Isn't this Joseph's son?" they asked. <sup>23</sup> Jesus said to them, "Surely you will quote this proverb to me: 'Physician, heal yourself!' And you will tell me, 'Do here in your hometown what we have heard that you did in Capernaum.'" <sup>24</sup> Truly I tell you," he continued, "no prophet is accepted in his hometown. <sup>25</sup> I assure you that there were many widows in Israel in Elijah's time, when the sky was shut for three and a half years and there was a severe famine throughout the land. <sup>26</sup> Yet Elijah was not sent to any of them, but to a widow in Zarephath in the region of Sidon. <sup>27</sup> And there were many in Israel with leprosy in the time of Elisha the prophet, yet not one of them was cleansed—only Naaman the Syrian."<sup>28</sup> All the people in the synagogue were furious when they heard this. <sup>29</sup> They got up, drove him out of the town, and took him to the brow of the hill on which the town was built, in order to throw him off the cliff. <sup>30</sup> But he walked right through the crowd and went on his way.

Leader: This is the word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God!
