Love Your Neighbor

This Sunday, Corey Widmer continued our series on the Call of the King.

READ

Luke 10:38-11:13

REFLECT

1. How have you been like Martha before? How have you prioritized other things, even important things, over communion with Christ?
2. Do you use knowledge about God and service for God to replace being with God? How so?
3. John Owen said "A minister may fill his pews, his communion roll, the mouths of the public, but what that minister is on his knees in secret before God Almighty, that he is and no more." Who are you on your knees?
4. Corey said our perceived strength has an indirect relationship with our prayer life, the more competent we think we are, the less we will pray. Have you experienced this? How might you more consistently tap into your own weakness?
5. Corey explained that Jesus died to make prayer possible! What significance does this have on your life?

PRAY

- + Confess to God how we often rely on our strength and competency and how we prioritize our duties and desires over our relationship with Him.
- + Ask God to give us the requisite discipline to seek Him out in prayer.
- + Thank Jesus for providing us access to the God as our Father.
- + Pray for spiritual renewal and revival in our community.

PRACTICE

- + How might you transition from being a doer to resting in communion with Christ?
- + How can we stop concentrating on our outer life and move toward thinking of our life in solitude? How can we as a community cease the frantic doing of our programming and instead operate relationally?
- + What tangible steps can you take to become more childlike and dependent in your prayer life?
- + How can you make your prayer life more Kingdom-focused? What can you pray for in your times of solitude, your marriage, your family, your neighborhood, Third, Richmond, our nation, and the rest of the world?
